

Preston Manning

Founder, President and CEO, the Manning Centre for Building Democracy and former Leader of the official Opposition

Prior to entering federal politics, Preston Manning owned and operated an Edmonton-based research and management consulting firm. Mr. Manning served as a Member of the Canadian Parliament from 1993 to 2001. He founded two new political parties – the Reform Party of Canada and the Canadian Reform Conservative Alliance. Mr. Manning served as Leader of the Opposition from 1997 to 2000 and was also his party’s critic for Science and Technology. In 2002, Mr. Manning released a book entitled Think Big. Mr. Manning is currently President and CEO of the Manning Centre for Building Democracy. Mr. Manning continues to write, speak, and teach on a variety of subjects including strengthening relations between the scientific and political communities.