

Tony Dean

Professor, School of Public Policy and Governance, University of Toronto; Senior Research Fellow, Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University; former Secretary of the Cabinet and Head of the Ontario Public Service

In 1989 Tony Dean joined the Ontario public service, serving as both the Deputy Minister of Labour and the Deputy Minister of Policy in the Cabinet Office, before serving as Secretary of the Cabinet and Head of the Ontario Public Service from 2002-2008. Prior to entering the Ontario public service, he worked for 10 years in public sector collective bargaining. Tony Dean is a Professor in the School of Public Policy and Governance, University of Toronto, and Senior Research Fellow at the Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University. He is an advisor on public service reform and on building capacity for policy and delivery and is currently chairing an Expert Advisory Panel reviewing Ontario's Occupational Health and Safety System.